MEMBERSHIP DATA PRIVACY STATEMENT

For some information, if you do not provide us with the requested personal information, we may not be able to admit you as a member or player or we may have to terminate your membership.

Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time, which you may do by contacting us as described in the "Contacting us" section below. Please note however that the withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are entitled to do so on bases other than your consent. Withdrawing consent may also have the same effects as not providing the information in the first place, for example we may have to terminate your membership.

5. Disclosure of your personal information

We do or may share personal information with the following parties:

- any party approved by you
- club officials and coaches, for the purposes of administering the club and teams run by the club
- any governing bodies or regional bodies for the sport covered by our club, to allow them to properly administer the sport on a local, regional and national level, including without limitation the FA and the NEHYL
- opposition teams for the purposes of match day admin and NHS test and trace
- www.Churtjuniors.com, for the purposes of maintaining the Churt Juniors Football Club website including the membership database and payment information
- Teamer, the FA Matchday App and other similar web or app based services for the purposes of managing notifications and line ups for matches, training sessions and other events
- cloud-based document sharing sites including Microsoft OneDrive, Google Docs, Google Drive and Dropbox, for the purposes of administering individual teams and age groups within the club
- the Government, NHS and police and security services where we are required to do so by law or to assist with their investigations or initiatives
- other parents, players and coaches within your age group and opposition teams in respect of health data only where that data relates to COVID-19 symptoms or the result of a COVID-19 test.

6. Transferring your personal information internationally

Churt Juniors Football Club does not transfer your personal information outside of the UK. Your personal information may be transferred and stored outside of the UK and/ or the European Union by Teamer, the FA Matchday App, similar services and/ or the cloud-based document sharing sites referred to in 5 above. For further information regarding transfer of data by these sites and services please refer to the privacy policy of the relevant organisation.

7. How long do we keep personal information for?

The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you. Generally, where there is no legal requirement for longer retention, we retain all physical and electronic records for a period of up to 6 years after your last contact with us or the end of your membership. An exception to this rule is information that may be relevant to personal injury or discrimination claims, which may be retained until the limitation period for those types of claims has expired. For personal injury or discrimination claims this can be an extended period as the limitation period might not start to run until a long time after the event.

It is important to ensure that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and up-to-date and you should let us know if anything changes, for example if you change your phone number or email address.

8. Your rights in relation to personal information

You have the following rights in relation to the personal information held by us about you:

- the right to be informed about how your personal information is being used;
- the right to access the personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the correction of inaccurate personal information we hold about you;
- the right to request the erasure of your personal information in certain circumstances;
- the right to restrict processing of your personal information where certain requirements are met;
- the right to object to the processing of your personal information;
- the right to request that we transfer elements of your data either to you or another service provider; and
- the right to object to certain automated decision-making processes using your personal information.

You should note that some of these circumstances will not apply to data which we hold about you - for example we do not use automated decision making in relation to your personal data.

MEMBERSHIP DATA PRIVACY STATEMENT

Whilst this Privacy Statement sets out a general summary of your legal rights in respect of personal information, this is a very complex area of law. More information about your legal rights can be found on the Information Commissioner's website at <https://ico.org.uk/for-the-public/>

To exercise any of the above rights, or if you have any questions relating to your personal data held by us, please contact us by using the details set out in the "Contacting us" section below.

If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can also complain to the UK Information Commissioner's Office.

9. Changes to this notice

We may update this privacy notice from time to time. When we change this notice in a material way, we will update the version date at the bottom of this page. For significant changes to this notice we will try to give you reasonable notice unless we are prevented from doing so. Where required by law we will seek your consent to changes in the way we use your personal information.

10. Contacting us

In the event of any query or complaint in connection with the information we hold about you, please contact us at using the contact form at <https://churtjuniorsfc.com/contact/>
